THE GLASS ASYLUM

OUR FOUNDER

Christopher Crimaldi - Owner & Artist

For Chris Crimaldi, glass blowing was once a hobby. He has taken his passion for this craft and transformed it into a full-time, full-access studio -- The Glass Asylum. As the founder and an artist, he is deeply committed to the studio's vision to be the leading teaching facility, artists' studio, and gallery in Northeast Ohio.

Chris is particularly interested in creating translucent glass fixtures for retail and industrial settings. His custom lighting work is on display at several of Cleveland's upscale restaurants, as well as in homes and businesses.

Chris is a native of Cleveland who spent five years serving in the United States Marine Corp. He is a licensed electrician and owner of Crimaldi & Son, Inc., and in the process of opening his second glassblowing and event space in Chagrin Falls.

OUR STORY

The Glass Asylum - Chagrin Falls, OH

The Glass Asylum is Northeast Ohio's premier glass-blowing studio, where artists and guests create, collaborate, and customize.

Located in the beloved village of Chagrin Falls, our studio is a hotspot for art and entertainment. At the Glass Asylum, you'll find a supportive community of glass artists and staff who colaborate with each other and with guests to create meaningful experiences and works of art.

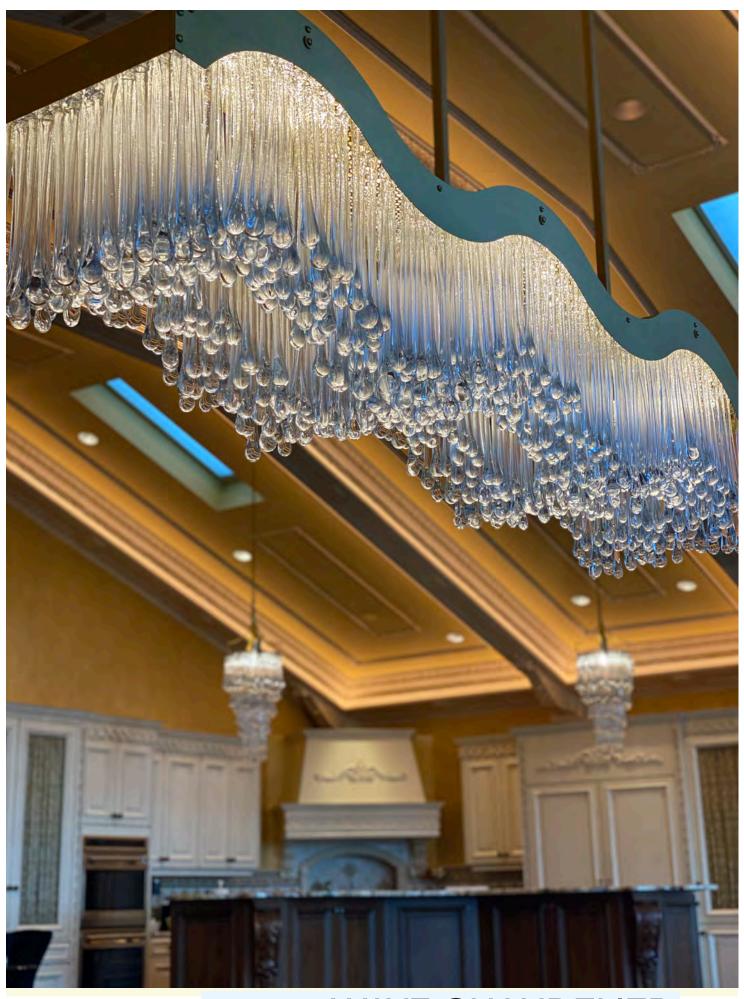

Our studio serves as our artists' creative haven, a high-end art gallery, a production facility, and a dynamic space where guests produce art of their own.
